Nathan Warren, Esq. prides himself in defending the principals of the United States Constitution and the California State Constitution. These legal documents protect our citizens from unfair prosecution, and keep the government from violating the rights of our citizens who are accused of a crime.

When you are charged with a crime, an experienced attorney is very important to defend your rights. Mr. Warren, Esq. has the experience to defend you.

Nathan Warren, Esq. provides an intelligent and aggressive criminal defense for persons charged with misdemeanors, felonies, and DUI,. We represent clients in both state and federal courts.

When facing criminal prosecution your immediate future is at stake, and you could be facing jail. We work diligently to defend you and protect your rights. We are dedicated to arguing the strengths of your case while identifying the weakness in the prosecution's case in order to reach a satisfactory resolution whether it is a plea-negotiation, alternative sentencing, or defending you at trial.

We are skilled negotiators and experienced at trial. We have reached positive resolutions for numerous clients.

Mr. Warren is a former Police Officer and a former Orange County Public Defender. He has the unique insight from both the law enforcement and defense counsel perspectives, giving his clients the best and most well-rounded representation available.
